

On motion of Mr. Kimmel,

The communication was ordered to be printed on the Journal.

To the Honorable,

The Senate of Maryland:

The copy furnished us of the order of your Honorable Body of Friday, the 3rd of February. addressed to "the Visitors and Governors of St. John's College," in reference to the Institution aforesaid, being defective in one particular, we beg leave to amend and complete our answers in this respect, in the following supplement, which we respectfully submit to your Honorable Body:

The copy furnished us of the order of your Honorable Body did not contain the following amendment: "Ordered, That the Visitors and Governors of Saint John's College, at their earliest convenience report to the Senate * * * Also, their (the Professors) places of birth, and from whence they now hail."

1st. Rev. C. K. Nelson, D. D., Principal and Professor of Moral Philosophy and History, was born in Albemarle county, Virginia; has lived in Maryland fifteen years, and in Annapolis thirteen, and has been connected with the Institution nearly three years.

2nd. David Stewart, M. D., Vice Principal and Professor of Chemistry and Natural Philosophy, was born in Delaware; has resided in Maryland thirty years, during several years of which time he gave Lectures on Chemistry, in the city of Baltimore, and for the last five years has been a Professor and Vice Principal of St. John's College.

3rd. David J. Capron, A. M., Professor of Mathematics, was born in Rhode Island, was graduated at Washington College, (now Trinity) Connecticut; has resided in Maryland twenty-six years, during the whole of which time he has been the instructor of youth, and for the last twenty years Professor of Mathematics in St. John's College.

4th. Rev. Russell Trevitt, D. D. Professor of Ancient Languages, was born in Massachusetts, was graduated at Columbia College, New York; has resided in Maryland nineteen years, during the whole of which time he has been a Professor of Ancient Languages, and for the last five years as connected with St. John's College.

5th. Rudolph L. Tafel, A. M., Professor of Modern Languages, was born in Ulm, a city of Wurtemberg; has resided